Notes on routes: -

Fly to Samos

By commercial Aegean or Olympic Airways flights out of the Athens airport, and then catch an Aegean hydrofoil to Patmos. Typically, either a 7 am arrival on Samos or an overnight stay in Samos is required if you would like to utilize this option.

Fly to Leros or Kalymnos

By commercial Olympic Airways flights out of the Athens airport, and then catch a Dodekanisos Seaways catamaran, or Aegean Hydrofoil to Patmos. Schedule your arrival time on Leros or Kalymnos for the morning so that you guarantee to travel to Patmos on the same day.

Fly to Kos

By commercial Aegean or Olympic Airways flights out of the Athens airport, and then catch a Dodekanisos Seaways catamaran, Aegean Hydrofoil, or Blue Star Ferry to Patmos. For a good / guaranteed connection it is advisable to make sure you catch an early flight.

(Please be advised that Kos Airport is 26km from the Kos town port / ferry, there are no busses only taxis. The Port of Mastichari is closer at 8km but the ferries are less frequent.)

For Return booking

Check the flight and ferry times for connections, it may be better to come one way and go another.

Remember, we provide a complimentary Patmos port pick-up and drop-off service.
